

Even in the chilliest of times, and in the midst of a heart-rending world, the old tales remind us that small things have tremendous power. A hummingbird brings back the sun. An ancient woman re-creates the world by weaving again a cloth of transcendent beauty...

CREATIVE RESISTANCE

Weaving small paths of beauty in a heart-rending world

a nature & soul retreat at Rolling Ridge, near Harpers Ferry, WV

October 10-12, 2025

with Jim Hall, Cheryl Hellner, and Lindsay McLaughlin

Join us to wander the wild land of Rolling Ridge, return to intimate relationship with the Sacred Others in rock and stream, tree and bush, with the winged ones and the four, six, eight-legged ones.

Participate in ceremony and council, share in circles of safety and grace, listen to poets and storytellers, dance in sacred circles, sing heart songs with and to the Earth

$445 single occupancy

$375 shared (full or bunk) – please tell us the name of your roommate when you register

$350 camp – bring your own tent

Register at www.friendsofsilence.net under events. $75 nonrefundable deposit requested.